BIG LEAGUE BALL CLUBS GETTING READY FOR SOUTHERN INVASION

BLEACHERS BEING TORN AWAY AS HANDICAP TO M'INTYRE

BICYCLE RACES DRAW BIG CROWD

BOB WALTHOUR, IN BURST OF SPEED, RUSHES AWAY FROM JIM MORAN IN TWENTY-MILE MOTOR FACED EVENT.

ELMER COLLINS GIVES A FINE EXHIBITION

Will Race Against Walthour Next Tuesday and Wednesday, the Winner To Take All-Sprint Events Prove To Be Exciting.

Before the second night gathering that has been seen at the Vendrome since its opening at Ponce de Leon, and by far the most enthusiastic one, Bob Walthour rode away from Jimmy Moran Friday night in the twenty-mile motor paced race.

While this was the case, there were other numbers on the bill that brought the spectators to their feet and filled the bleachers with the notes of their cheering. The exhibition two miles ridden by Elmer Collins, who next week will go against Walthour, broke the track record. He made the trip in 2:30 and placed the cycle fans by the gracefulness and speed shown.

Collins holds all records in America from five to fifteen miles. He is one of the fastest men in the world on a bike. He has often ridden a mile in 3:40 and a mile without rest Tuesday and Friday, the winner to take all. That arrangement is made there will be some more track records broken.

The sprint races proved to be a fine feature of the Friday evening card. Most of the stars were in the track. Among them were Tom, Foster, the Hills, Wylie and others.

The half mile handicap was won in the first heat by Ben Hill.

The five miles sprint was won by Joe Fagler with the second.

Wylie did some great riding towards the finish of this event. There was a split at the start and two men went to the head but one was lost. The motor race between Collins and Walthour closed the Tuesday and Friday

Here is Atlanta's old friend, Larry Lajoie, who just now is about as busy as a man could be getting his club in shape for its annual southern training trip.

This year, however, there will be little use of the Cleveland club in Atlanta and inside the city for the Naps are already under a royal welcome and always ready to see the fans who go to see them.

Cleveland is paying Matty McIntyre, the Detroit star, a great compliment this year. The management is feeling in order to save space during the approaching season. It is said a number of contracts were lost last year to Detroit because Matty acquired the habit of sitting the ball into the state and bringing in runs.

After a council of war it was decided to carry a portion of the bleachers and in this way place a handicap on the hard-hitting outfielder of the Tigers. When a man can hit hard enough to break the management of an opposing club out of its plan, he must be able to swing the ball with some force.

During the spring the Naps will trade at two places—Mobile and New Orleans. They will exchange picks with the Philadelphia club, playing alternate dates in these cities.

The Naps will also cut out games with other clubs during the spring and there will be no spring series with their major league teams. This innovation has not found favor with other managers.

GRAND—Max Fisman in "The Substitute."

ORHEU—Vaudville.

LAVIN—Just out of college.

RIEHL—Runaway Girls.

In his new comedy, "The Substitute," Max Fisman presented at the Grand Friday evening one of the most pleasing and successful productions since the season began. The story of the play is an engaging one to begin with, the company is well selected and does excellent work.

Everyone who has seen Max Fisman in a play will be particularly interested in his new vehicle and in the way he handles it. "The Substitute" is a most exacting piece of work that the former comedy actor has taken to his heart and made a success of it.
